Return to Work Policy

EXPOCONTI Pty Ltd return to work obligations under the Accident Compensation Act 1985

Expoconti return to work obligations	How Expoconti will meet its obligations
Make return to work information available and consult about how the information is made available	Expoconti will make return to work information available to its workers about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the obligations of Expoconti under Part VIIB of the Act and how the employer is meeting the obligations; (b) the rights and obligations of workers under Part VIIB of the Act and how workers can obtain further information about their rights and obligations; (c) the name and contact details of the WorkSafe Agent selected by the employer; (d) the name and contact details of the Return to Work Coordinator, if applicable; and (e) the procedure for resolving return to work issues in the workplace - by providing workers with this document after consulting with them about how the information will be provided to them.
Provide employment	To the extent that it is reasonable to do so, Expoconti will provide suitable employment to an injured worker if they have a current work capacity and provide pre-injury employment to them if they no longer have an incapacity for work. To the extent that it is reasonable to do so, Expoconti will provide pre-injury or suitable employment to an injured worker for a period of 52 weeks of the worker's incapacity. This will commence from the date a WorkSafe Certificate of Capacity or a Worker's Injury Claim Form in which weekly payments are claimed is received from the worker or from when the WorkSafe Agent notifies us of receipt of same (whichever is the earliest).
Plan return to work	From the time that Expoconti receives a Worker's Injury Claim Form in which weekly payments are claimed or the initial WorkSafe Certificate of Capacity from the worker or the WorkSafe Agent notifies us of receipt of same (whichever is earlier), Expoconti will, to the extent that it is reasonable to do so, commence return to work planning for that injured worker. As part of that planning, Expoconti will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • obtain relevant information about the injured worker's capacity for work; • consider reasonable workplace support, aids or modifications to assist the worker's return to work • assess and propose options for suitable employment or pre-injury employment; • engage in consultation about the return to work of the worker; and • provide the worker with clear, accurate and current details of their return to work arrangements; and • monitor the worker's progress- as often as is necessary to enable the worker to return to work in employment which is consistent with the worker's capacity for work.
Consult about the return to work of a worker	Expoconti will, to the extent that it is reasonable to do so, consult with the worker, the worker's treating health practitioner (with the consent of the worker) and occupational rehabilitation provider (if one is involved) in relation to the injured worker's return to work. Expoconti will consult with the parties listed above by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • sharing information about the worker's return to work • providing a reasonable opportunity for them to consider and express their views about the worker's return to work, and • taking those views into account. Expoconti will consult directly with the worker about their return to work, but the worker may be assisted by a representative during any consultation (except for a legal practitioner). The worker may be represented, assisted and supported during the return to work process.
Nominate and appoint a Return to Work Coordinator	Expoconti will nominate and appoint a Return to Work Coordinator for the duration of our return to work obligations to an injured worker. They will have an appropriate level of seniority and be competent to assist Expoconti meet our obligations under Part VIIB of the Act.
Cooperate with labor hire employers	If Expoconti hires labour hire workers and the worker suffers an incapacity for work resulting from or materially contributed to by an injury arising out of working with us, we will, to the extent that it is reasonable to do so, cooperate with the labour hire employer in respect of action taken by the labour hire employer to provide employment, plan a worker's return to work and consult about the return to work of a worker to facilitate the worker's return to work.
Resolution of return to work issues	Expoconti will attempt to resolve return to work issues in accordance with: The relevant procedure specified in the Return to Work Direction No.1 of 2010 (Ministerial Direction) (The Return to Work Issue Resolution Procedure). If you have any questions or queries regarding this procedure, please contact: Alex Silkin (see details below).
